Kraushaar Led Fund Launches With ATPI

New York, January 25th, 2007 – Roaring Brook Capital selected ATPI to design and manage the fund’s IT infrastructure. Roaring Brook is led by Judah Kraushaar, a former First Vice President of Equity Research at Merrill Lynch and co-author of The Real Deal – the best selling Sandy Weill memoir. ATPI provides IT services to small and midsize hedge funds. ATPI is responsible for day-to-day support of the servers, firewalls, remote access solution and PCs that support Roaring Brook’s business.

According to Kraushaar, “ATPI provided us with a level of personal attention that helped smooth over the bumps of starting up and enabled us to launch on time.” Paul DiBlasi, President of ATPI, said “Roaring Brook has all the elements necessary to be highly successful. Our experience in building stable and secure IT environments for funds is part of that equation.” Roaring Brook launched on January 16th.
